A copy should be placed in the hands of every voter in Indiana. It is issued in pamphlet form of 16 pages. Price, $1 per hundred.

CONSPIRACY TO DISOLVE THE UNION.—The existence of a plot among Republican leaders to destroy the Union, by a separation of the States, immediately after the election of 1860, is demonstrated by extracts from leading Republican papers. And the speech of Judge W. M. McCarty before the Democratic Convention of Shelby county, vindictive of the right of free speech, and reviewing the political blunders of the party in power. Both published in a pamphlet of eight pages. Price, 50 cents per hundred.

MASSON'S THEATRE.—There will be a stated meeting of Center Lodge No. 23, this (Monday) evening at 7 o'clock.

CHAS. FISHER, Secretary.

A Quartermaster with the rank of Captain has been appointed for Camp Morton. Hereafter the duty has been done by regimental quartermasters, taking them from their regimental duties.

The abolition papers will now pitch into Gen. McClellan because he did not buy the rebel army in Maryland. Did those newspapers ever calculate the dimensions of a bag capable of holding one hundred and fifty thousand men?

It is said that Mrs. Klingensmith, Love & Burrows, intend establishing a mammoth livery and stable on South Pennsylvania street. Indianapolis is now one of the most extensive horse markets in the West.

CHOICE GROCERIES.—C. L. Holmes, 31 West Washington, has a large assortment of choice groceries, everything in that line that a family needs, and of the best quality. In addition, he keeps for sale the best of fresh fruit. We have of no nearer selection, or one where the stock looks more inviting to the purchaser.

GEN. STEVENS'S DEATH.—Just before General Stevens's death his son and Aid, heard, on receiving a wound, exclaimed: "Father, I am wounded!" Gen. Stevens replied: "Well, my son, I have no time to take care of you now; and, turning to a soldier, said: "Corporal, see to my boy."

THE UNION PAID AT EMBURG.—The Jeffersonville and Madison Railroad will carry passengers and freight at the fair half price. Every thing indicated a large attendance. Some of Kentucky's best blooded stock will certainly be paid in cash. We would advise our readers to visit this fair.

ICE, ICE.—The greatest luxury in warm weather is ice. Without it how could we endure the heat of summer? Blessed be the man that invents ice-ice in summer. Mr. Geo. W. Pitts, on Vermont street, has the finest, cleanest and most transparent ice which he delivers each morning to his customers. Call on Mr. Pitts and he will keep you cool.

ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED FROM RICHMOND.—Drs. Bullard and Patten are expected to arrive late night with one hundred and seventy-five of our wounded soldiers from Richmond, Kentucky. They telegraphed from Cincinnati at 3:50 P. M. yesterday, to the Governor, to have conveyances and refreshments for the men at the depot, as they would arrive during the night.

CRYSTAL PALACE.—This old and popular establishment still retains its reputation as a first class restaurant and seventy-five of our wounded soldiers from Richmond, Kentucky. They telegraphed from Cincinnati at 3:50 P. M. yesterday, to the Governor, to have conveyances and refreshments for the men at the depot, as they would arrive during the night.

BURGLARY.—On Thursday night one of the rooms at Little's Hotel was entered by burglars and $150 stolen from one of the proprietors. The room of Col. Alexander was also entered and his watch taken, but the thieves missed his money, which was in an envelope on his table. We have heard of several other burglaries lately and have refrained from saying anything about them in hopes our police force would succeed in catching the operators. People cannot be too careful, for the town has a full supply of rogues within its limits.

Noon Reports.

AFFAIRS ON THE POTOMAC.

THE REBEL RETREAT.

"On to Richmond."

REBEL MOVEMENTS IN KENTUCKY.

A BATTLE NEAR IUKA, MISSISSIPPI.

Repulse of the Rebels.

THE MCKINSTRY COURT MARTIAL.

From the Army of the Potomac.

New York, September 20.—A Washington dispatch says:

The reconnaissance from Heintzelman's headquarters yesterday morning accomplished one of the most rapid and brilliant achievements of the campaign. They went within three miles of Sharpsburg, performing the distance of eighty miles in less than twenty hours. Near Sharpsburg they discovered a rebel force acting as a body guard to Gen. Ewell who was in ambulance badly wounded being escorted by two regiments of cavalry. The body guard were captured together with about thirty more prisoners, several of whom were officers, and some wagons. The report was sent by Birney.

The Herald's Washington dispatch has the following account:

Information received here that the rebels last night destroyed the new bridge at Harper's Ferry and blew up the piers. They also destroyed everything possible at Harper's Ferry and along the line of the railroad, including the splendid bridge known as the Pillar bridge at that point.

This morning there remained only a small force of rebels at Bolivar Heights and one company at Sunnyside.

The rebels took advantage of the cessation of hostilities yesterday to make all necessary arrangements for their retreat. Their main body crossed the river at the nearest ford. Some accounts state near Harper's Ferry, others at Dam No. 4. The latter is probably their principal crossing.

There are flying rumors of an engagement to-day, but it is ascertained the firing proceeded from the Rebels attacking the rear guard of the retreating rebel army.

PHILADELPHIA, September 19.—(Midnight.)—The Press has just received interesting intelligence from McClellan's army, up till noon to-day, the rebel force was estimated at 15,000 men. The rebel force is stated to be 15,000 under Price.

The battle took place about two miles east of Iuka.

Rosecrans is in pursuit of the enemy.

From Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, September 20.—Lebanon Junction is the farthest Southern point open to telegraph communication.

About three thousand rebel cavalry are at Lebanon.

About 19,000 rebel infantry were reported encamped last night about two miles east of Lebanon's Hill on the pike.

The cavalry advance pickets of this force passed through New Haven, en route for Hardtown this morning.

From Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, September 20.—One thousand two hundred more rebel prisoners arrived here this morning from Frederick, captured by McClellan. They are now en route for Fort Delaware.

Another train of prisoners is on the way and expected soon.

The prisoners were dressed in all manner of garb and are very dirty and ragged.

From Hagerstown.

HAGERSTOWN, Pa., September 20.—No information has been received at headquarters here up to noon to-day, from either of the armies in Maryland.

Private dispatches say the enemy is not to be seen at any point, and that McClellan is still in pursuit.

The sick and wounded of our army are expected to reach here to-day from Hagerstown.

The Indian Troubles.

OMAHA, NEBRASKA, Sept. 20.—Messengers dispatched by acting-Governor Paddock to northern settlements in this territory, 200 miles from here, report the native tribes, by the massacres in Minnesota entirely subdued, and that the settlers had returned to their homes.

There are no hostile Indians in this territory, and not the remotest probability of trouble to settlers in any section from Indian depredations.

From Buffalo.

BUFFALO, September 20.—The Board of Trade held a large and enthusiastic meeting this noon, after "Change, George S. Hazard presided.

General Wallbridge of New York, addressed them at length. He urged the necessity of enlarging the facilities of water communication between the East and the West, so that our iron ore could be sent to the West, and our cotton to the East, and down the St. Lawrence, or come through to the Hudson, as a great military necessity in the event of a foreign war, and demonstrated that by such increased means of transportation the West would be guaranteed perpetual peace between the two continents.

Gen. Wallbridge was received with great favor. He presented strong constitutional Union resolutions, which were enthusiastically adopted.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 20.—Gen. Wright has issued orders giving notice to all concerned that the provision of the confiscation bill will be moved from the line of the Potomac last night. It is believed their army is falling back in the direction of Charleston and Winchester.

The shelling was kept up at the enemy across the river at Sharpsburg, but up to night no news has been received.

There is no evidence that Lee or Longstreet are wounded.

19,000 stand of arms were found on the field belonging to the enemy.
